Wives Nos. 1 and 2 Meet. An interesting meeting between two wives of one man took place on the wives of one man took place on the White Star line pier in New York yesterday when the Oceanic arrived from Liverpool. Aboard the ship was Mrs. Annie Osiel, the wife of Semah Osiel, a Spaniard, now in the Raymond street jail with a charge of bigamy against him. On the pier was Mrs. Sadie Osiel, accompanied by a detective and a crowd of friends. She had come to meet the other Mrs. Osiel and congratulate her on the bringing to justice of their mutual husband. The Mrs. Osiel who was aboard the Oceanic has been living in London with her two children for four years. She came to this country as soon as she She came to this country as soon as she heard of her husband's arrest, and will appear as a witness in his trial forthcomin Newark, N. J. Mrs. Annie Osiel, who, so far as the police know, is the first Mrs. Osiel, was married to the good looking Spaniard eight years ago by the Rev. Dr. Mendez, of New York On August 14, 1899. Osiel, it is charged, was married to Miss Sadie Brandon, of Newark. Two or three days later, according to the second wife, he disappeared along with some money which came to him as a result of the alliance.

Fine Game Preserve.

The largest gunning club has just been organized in Norfolk. It is to be known as the Pocahontas Fowling Club and will have a capital stock of $50,000.

The organization has secured 900 acres of marsh land on Long Point marsh. This land is nearly three miles long and nearly two miles wide and is situated between Back Bay and Currituck Sound, and is in sight of Ragged Island, Knott's Island and Morse Point. It is regarded as the best ducking ground to be found anywhere.

A $5,000 club house will be built on the mainland and a number of lodges will be built on the marsh. It is the purpose of those who organized the club to keep its control always in the hands of Norfolk men and the local membership is limited to ten. It is understood that some northern sportsmen have taken considerable stock already.

Injunction Against Strikers.

Judge Munger in the United States Circuit Court in Omaha yesterday issued an injunction against the striking packing-house employes restraining them from "picketing" the packing-house district. The injunction was granted on petition of the packing-house managers. The order restrains the strikers from "challenging, stopping, intercepting, threatening or intimidating any employes threatening or intimidating any employes of complainants by violence, threats or personal injury, calling of vile or abusive epithets or conduct calculated to prevent any of the employes from continuvent any of the employes from continu-ing the service in which they are employed." The strikers are restrained from congregating, from establishing and maintaining spies and pickets, from visiting the homes of new men or threat-ening their families. The order is temporary and is returnable August 10.

Says Bride of Few Hours is His Wife. While a wedding reception, tendered to William Pilger and his bride of a few thours was in progress at the residence of the bridegroom's brother-in-law, John Carrow, in Chester, Pa., one day last week, the company was startled by the appearence of a stranger, who said he s Fred Lafleur, an actor, and declared that the bride, who was formerly Miss Kauffeld, was his wife. He said that they were married at Norristown on July 7 by theffeev, John P. O'Rourk, Laffeur refused to leave the premises. Constable Cluelow was summond and he took Lafleur to the Upland borough hall but as no one appeared against him he was as no one appeared against and no was released from custody. In an interview the bride said: "I do not deny that I was with this man, Lafleur, but the marriage part of it is a fake. I was married to Mr. Pilger, in Camden "

To Foster Frog Industry.

The State Department of Fisheries is anxious to encourage frog culture in Pennsylvania. Commissioner Meehan believes that farmers who have swampy ground can, by a little attention, derive considerable revenue from this industry. He has propagated several million frogs of the species known as the Great Western frog, best species for market pur-poses. They are new ready for shipment and persons desiring to experiment in frog culture may have a supply on application to the department, for which blanks will be furnished. They may be had by applying direct to the department to the county fish protective associations of their Representatives in the Legis-

Triumphs of Modern Surgery Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed en-tirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treat-ment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It a'so allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and
